

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Richard L. Green,
Petitioner,

v.

Phuong Dinh Green,
Respondent.

Supreme Court No. S-17926

Order

Date of Order: January 4, 2021

Trial Court Case No. 3PA-19-01073CI

Before: Bolger, Chief Justice, Winfree, Maassen, Carney, and Borghesan, Justices.

On November 19, 2020, Phuong Green filed a cross-motion for sanctions and attorney's fees. On December 2, 2020, Richard Green filed a motion for reconsideration of this court's November 27, 2020 order denying motions to accept late and overlength petition for review. On December 8, 2020, Ms. Green filed an opposition to the motion for reconsideration. On December 11, 2020, Mr. Green responded to the cross-motion for sanctions and attorney's fees.

Richard Green's petition for review was clearly late, was grossly overlength, and raised arguments that had been made and rejected on his earlier petition for review. The court concludes that Phuong Green is entitled under Alaska Appellate Rule 510(b) to an award of the attorney's fees necessarily incurred in having to respond to the petition.

IT IS ORDERED: The cross-motion for sanctions and attorney's fees is GRANTED. Richard Green shall pay Phuong Green $1,550.00 for attorney's fees.

The motion for reconsideration is DENIED and this file is CLOSED.
